amount and number of business failures per week. For years past the public was cited to Dun's and Bradstreet's reports, as an indication of the business situation, though the situation has become so desperate, these tell-tale reports have been suppressed by the old party press and Wall street

The opposition press take pride in referring to the revival of the once good times when the farmers get their immense wheat and corn crops on the market. Yes, at starvation prices, 65 to 68 cents per bushel for wheat.

We are further told that not onehalf of these crops are yet sold, but are held by the farmer for better prices, and because he does not need the mon-ey these crops would bring him. II, which convention will elect dele-place where Dawson had been at work, and because he does not need the monwhen the whole trath of the matter is, gates to attend the state and Congres he, like four-lifths of his fellow-men, is on the verge of ruin financially, and the greater bulk of his crops long since sold to pay the interest on his English consin's claim on his home and to pay the banker, one of the privileged few, the note he holds against him and which he charges interest on at the rate of 12 to 18 per cent. This money, be it remembered, the national banker gets from the government for one per cent. Is he better than you are?

When your time will permit you from beholding our great prosperity (?) please figure a little on our indebtedness as a nation, also on the preket change required by us Kansas farmers to pay Wall street and eastern capitalsts their annual interest on the homes of Sunny Kansas. $21,018,648 is the little sum we pay them for the 8243,-146,826 of borrowed money.

It will require sixteen years of unremitting toil and the good crops of as many years to pay the fabulous sum, provided we do not contract one dollar's indebtedness during the time. Do not be lulled into quiet by the lying statements you see in the old party papers of the canceled and paid off mortgages reported by them. These are the same kind of falsehoods these papers have been telling us all these years. The truth is, and you (and these papers, too) know it, that ninetenths of these reported paid off mortgages are paid simply by the farmer giving up his home to these eastern and English money Shylocks.

Look around you. In your own neighborhood, how many of the farmers have paid off their mortgages? How many have lost their homes? How many have grain to realize from

As a nation, we are paying annually in interest to British capitalists the little sum, in gold at that, $150,000,000 or for every day we pass, $416,000.

If we, as Americans, are prospering, burdened with home and foreign debts, beyond the hope of our ever extricating ourselves, in Heaven's name, when were we not prosperous?

If any intelligent man will look over our country's map and locate the members of congress who voted against the free silver bill last week, he will cerand the money power have in its grasp our lawmakers. He will also see that it is a little spot of country in the north east corner of the United States that dictates to congress and our whole peohow much or how little our volume of money shall be. Just so long as men, the tax duplicate at its proper value otherwise intelligent, vote blindly for party, irrespective of their own or iciency which might arise. Of thousown and their country's welfare, just so long will men be bowed down with debt and take less each succeeding year for their daily toil. Did it ever year for their daily toil. Did it ever occur to you of the common class that it is the whole aim of the wealthy to make money scarce and consequently a high interest for the use of this

Another Decorated Grain Train.

Mr. Dixon, the Argonia export grain buyer and shipper, was in the city yes-terday. He proposes at an early day, by the 1st or May, or soon thereafter, to send a special train load of South Kansas wheat to New Orleans, the wheat to come from the counties of Harper, Sumner and Sedgwick and to be the finest lot of winter wheat ever sent from this state. This train is to be decorated, the decorations for which are to be painted right away, and which stemach and kidneys, gently aiding those are to advertise the counties named. There will be taking cartoons, statis-tics, etc. The train is to go by way of Kansas City, St. Louis, Memphis and Vicksburg and will make only daylight

About three weeks ago a man applied to E. W. Phillips for work, on his farm west of town, giving his name as Dawson, and vouchsafing the information that he had paid Mr. Devore, of the Illinois house, his last dollar, for hotel expenses. Mr. Phillips entered into a contract with Dawson to cut and put up fifty cords of wood. He went at his work cheerfully, taking his din-ner with him. He proved himself an expert in the use of the ax, and it was expert in the use of the ax, and it was not long until he had some twenty or more cords of wood cut into four-foot lengths. Saturday morning L. B. Price and wife, at whose house Dawson boarded, came to the city, and he, Daw-son, took his dinner pail, and started for the timber. Mr. and Mrs. Price re-mained in town until the performance. maries be held Thursday, June 2th, be-tween the hours of two and six p. m, to elect delegates to attend the county found his dinner pail hanging in a shrub, with the dinner untouched, and the ax, mani and wedges, arranged in good order on the ground, but a search of the timber failed to reveal the whereabouts of Dawson. As he had only drawn about three dollars of the wages due him his actions are shrouded in mystery. He told Mr. Phillips he came from Texas here, but that for many years he had resided in California He was about 35 years old, medium size sandy complected, weight about 145 pounds, and wore only a moustache on his face.—Mulcane Graphic
